

CALL FOR PAPERS

SECURING THE GOOD in the Second City PERINATAL SOCIAL WORK FOR ALL

MAY 4-7 2022

46th Annual NPSW Conference
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

NPSW is seeking workshop presentations and poster exhibits for the 2022 national conference.

Specific areas of interest include: cultural competency/social justice in perinatal settings, perinatal and social work ethics, perinatal mood disorders, fertility and surrogacy, adoption, fetal diagnosis and support, antenatal support, end-of-life and bereavement care, palliative planning and care, substance use and neonatal abstinence syndrome, interpersonal violence, child welfare, professional boundaries, NICU programming and clinical support, perinatal support for LGBTQ+, perinatal social work research, or any other applicable topic.

Please submit a one-page, double-spaced description/abstract of the material to be presented. Indicate whether your submission is for a workshop presentation or poster exhibit. Include a cover sheet that contains the presentation title, three learning objectives, presenters' names and credentials, phone numbers, and email addresses.

Submissions due November 15, 2021.

Send abstracts to Ashley Wilson and Rebecca Reed ashley.yoke@nm.org and rreed@luriechildrens.org

The National Association of Perinatal Social Workers
npsw.org

